

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

October 28, 2010

CONTACT

Chris Garrett of Impact Strategies
202-744-3393 or cgarrett@impactstrategiesllc.com

STATEMENT FROM LINDA KENNEY BADEN, ESQ.
ANNOUNCING SETTLEMENT ON BEHALF OF COACH
KEVIN BROADUS

[New York, NY] [October 28, 2010] –Today Linda Kenney Baden, Esq., lead attorney for Coach Kevin Broadus, is very pleased to announce the following statement from SUNY regarding Coach Broadus:

“The SUNY System, Binghamton University and former head men's basketball coach, Kevin Broadus, have reached a tentative agreement to resolve all pending issues related to Coach Broadus' employment. During this process, Coach Broadus and the University worked very closely together to arrive at a mutually satisfactory resolution so that each party can move forward. Coach Broadus was fully cooperative with the NCAA and SUNY appreciated his professionalism. We wish Coach Broadus continued success in any future men's basketball coaching position.”

With this matter now successfully resolved Coach Broadus looks forward to returning to the basketball court to coach his next championship team and has submitted his resignation to SUNY/Binghamton effective November 1, 2010.

Unfortunately, there are still victims of this sad chapter in SUNY history including the innocent young student athletes, about whom some in the media keep republishing false statements even though they are innocent bystanders as well as the taxpayers of New York who were saddled with much of the cost of the near million dollar audit, riddled with innuendo and fraught with inaccuracies, that SUNY has now clearly abandoned.

Coach Broadus would like to thank the vast majority of the Binghamton community who have been supportive of him throughout this ordeal and asks that everyone please visit his website at www.kevinbroadus.com for updates on his career.

###

For more information or to schedule an interview with Linda Kenney Baden, Esq., please contact Chris Garrett of Impact Strategies at 202-744-3393 or cgarrett@impactstrategiesllc.com